Call for Papers

on

Green Technologies, Design, Manufacturing & Operation

to be published in a

Special Section in the Journal of the SID

The Journal of the SID is soliciting original contributed papers describing advances in Green Technologies, Design, Manufacturing & Operation, to be published in a Special Section in the third quarter of 2011.

Papers are sought on the topics of reducing energy and material consumption, reducing waste and emissions, and reducing the use of materials that are harmful to the environment and/or society. The scope includes new devices, designs, or architectures that offer greener operation or life cycle, or improvements in device manufacturing or the supply chain for reduced energy consumption or waste. Some topics of particular, but not exclusive, interest include:

- New Energy-Efficient Displays and Display Systems
- Novel Energy-Efficient Device and System Designs or Operating Methods
- Introduction of Low-Environmental-Impact Materials or Methods
- Product End-of-Life Recycling & Disposal Strategies
- Energy and Material Reduction in Manufacturing, Cost Savings Included
- Environmental Remediation
- Recycling or Treatment of Manufacturing Waste Materials
- Use of Renewable Energy Sources in Manufacturing or Device Operation

The Guest Editor for this Special Section is Mr. Don Carkner from CH2M Hill, Portland, OR, USA

Authors are invited to submit manuscripts online in electronic format to the Journal of the SID by following the instructions listed under the Information for Authors tab on the JSID Web page, or at <http://sid.aip.org/jsid>. Authors submitting their manuscript must identify their manuscripts as being submitted for the Special Section on Green Technologies, Design, Manufacturing & Operation by selecting Mr. Don Carkner as the guest editor. The Information for Authors document provides a complete set of guidelines and requirements required for the preparation and submission of your manuscript.

Deadline for the submission of manuscripts is April 1, 2011.

All inquiries should be addressed to: don.carkner@CH2M.com
