

Call for Papers on

Display Advances in China

The Journal of the SID is soliciting original contributed papers on Display Advances in China, to be published in a Special Section in the Journal of the SID in the third quarter of 2015.

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- New manufacturing facilities and fabrication techniques
- Novel business, partnership, and financing structures
- New research directions and the development of novel devices, backplanes, and systems
- Market areas of particular relevance to Chinese manufacturers and researchers

Authors are invited to submit manuscripts online in electronic files to the JSID at:

<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/sid>

Authors submitting their manuscript must identify their manuscripts as being submitted for the Special Section by selecting "Special Section Paper" as the paper type. The Information for Authors document provides a complete set of guidelines and requirements required for the preparation and submission of a manuscript, including a discussion of the formatting requirements and the journal page charge policy.

The deadline for the submission of manuscripts is March 1, 2015

Please direct any questions about this special issue to the Editor-in-Chief of JSID at editor@sid.org.
