SID-ME Spring Meeting 2014
Istanbul, Turkey
April 7-8, 2014

The 2014 Spring meeting took place in the most eastern town of Europe – Istanbul. The Sabanci University organized this meeting in one of the most beautiful European cities.

The special topics of the SID-ME Spring Meeting 2014 were OLED displays and applications, Graphene and other novel materials in display applications, and flexible electronics and displays.

The conference took place in SEED Event Center at the Sakip Sabanci Museum with beautiful view on the Bosphorus.

31 contributions/abstracts were submitted and 65 display enthusiasts participated this conference.

The conference filled 2 full days with 4 plenary sessions (OLED displays and applications, Graphene and other novel materials in display, flexible displays and applications, LCD-3D displays), an industrial panel, and one poster session.

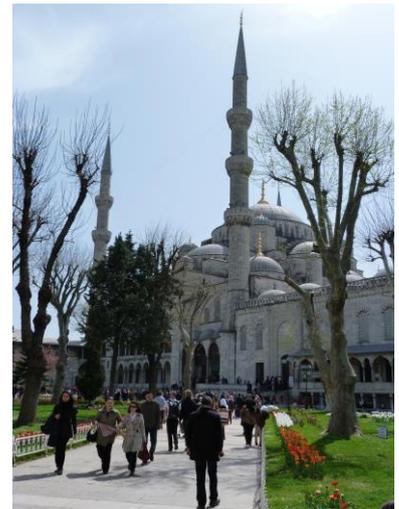

On the first evening, the participants were invited for a conference dinner on an evening cruise on the Bosphorus. Fruitful discussion and new contacts were established.

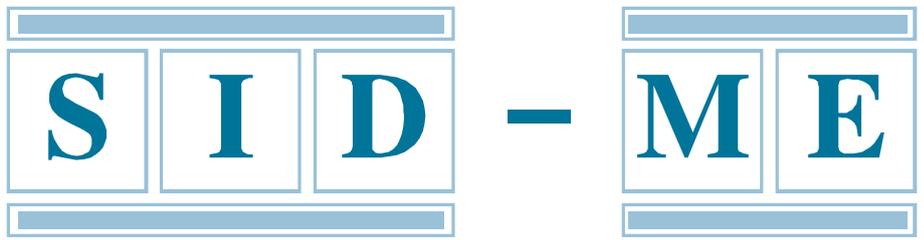

During the meeting, there was the annual SID-ME general meeting; Herbert de Smet reported on the Chapters activities. Finally the new SID-ME officers were elected (the actual list of new and re-elected officers can be found on the last page of this newsletter).

Thanks for this beautiful meeting in this marvelous town.
